

Job Description

Position	Public Health Intern (Voluntary)
Project	Mental Health Literacy
Location	New Delhi
No. of Position	02
About the Organisation	Public Health Resource Network is a growing network of individuals and organizations with the perspective of strengthening technical and management capacities to take action towards the common goal of 'Health for All'. Its main objective is to contribute and strengthen all efforts directed towards the goal of 'Health for All' through promotion of public health, social justice and human rights related to the provision and distribution of health services, especially for those who are generally left underserved. PHRN is currently working in the states of the states of Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand and Odisha and has contributed to the on-going work of strengthening public health systems in other states through its partnerships with other institutions. Whereas PHRN is a voluntary network of many hundred concerned public health practitioners who are willing to intervene towards 'Health for All' by creating capacities and engaging with the public health system, Public Health Resource Society (PHRS) is the core group that has initiated the network. PHRS is a national level organization that is registered in Delhi under Societies Registration Act 1860 (Act XXI). It comprises of a small group of members and full timers that provides leadership to the network as well as functions as its secretariat. For more details visit: www.phrsindia.org
About the project	The project aims to take forward the findings of MeHeLP India project (https://www.mehelp.in/). The idea is to engage with public health professionals for knowledge exchange and impact by developing a sustainable mental health literacy programme.
Job Description	Overall, the person would be responsible for providing research and implementation support to MHL project undertaken by PHRS. Roles and responsibilities are as follows: Support the national team in <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Conducting baseline and endline studies, including data collection, analysis, and report writing - Conduct workshops on mental health literacy with public health frontline workers - Transact Participatory Learning Action programme (module) on mental health literacy in the community - Evaluate the programme and modifications for sustainable mental health literacy learning resources for public health professionals and frontline public health workers - Draft a substantive research proposal on mental health literacy for scale-up. - Any other task assigned by the supervisor

Job Description

Report to	Research Associate
Qualifications, desired skills and requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Candidates completing/completed master's degree in Psychology/ Public health from a recognized institution- Should be passionate and sensitive towards mental health issues- Should have experience of working with the community- Must have abilities to impart training for diverse audiences.- Must have knowledge and skills in undertaking quantitative and qualitative data analysis ability- Excellent verbal and written communication in English and Hindi.- Should be a team player- Ability to travel to project areas
Duration	Till June 2024
How to apply	Interested candidate must send their resume along with a cover letter to delhi@phrnindia.org with subject line- Application for the post of Public Health Intern – Mental health Literacy Programme
Last date of application	20 th April 2024
Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (SEA) are unacceptable behaviors and prohibited conduct for all humanitarian workers, including PHRS employees and related personnel. PHRS has a policy of zero tolerance towards SEA. All candidates will mandatorily undergo a reference check that includes questions about SEA.	